

Whereas the Alachua County Medical Society is a representative body of the physicians, medical residents and medical students of north-central Florida,

Whereas it represents an important voice of this medical community to our region and to our State,

Whereas the Society works effectively with the Florida Medical Association and the Florida Medical Political Action Committee (FLAMPAC) on State of Florida legislative issues of importance to physicians and patients,

Whereas locally the ACMS is active on community boards related to community health and emergency care, (see <http://www.acms.net/>)

The Faculty Council of the University of Florida, College of Medicine hereby resolves that the Alachua County Medical Society is an important and valuable physician and community resource, and encourages membership by COM physicians in support of its missions.
